FACULTY

Paula D. Zeanah, PhD, MSN, RN
Dr. Paula Zeanah is the LGMC/OLC Eminent Scholar/Endowed Chair in Nursing at UL Lafayette’s College of Nursing and Allied Health Professions and the Director of Research at the Cecil Picard Center for Child Development and Lifelong Learning. Prior to joining UL Lafayette in 2015, Dr. Zeanah was a Professor of Psychiatry and Pediatrics at Tulane University School of Medicine where she was the Chief of the Psychology Division in the Department of Psychiatry and a supervisor for the Pediatric Psychiatry Consultation Liaison program. She also served as the Clinical Director and the Director of the Infant Mental Health for Louisiana’s Nurse Family Partnership/MIECHV program and continues to provide professional training and consultation to the MIECHV program in Louisiana and NFP nationally. She currently serves as the Chair of the Louisiana ACE initiative and is an ACE educator with Louisiana’s ACE education program. As a pediatric nurse and clinical psychologist, Dr. Zeanah’s clinical and research interests center at the interface of physical and mental health including mental health issues in non-mental health settings, clinical issues in home visiting, perinatal and infant mental health, adverse childhood experiences, chronic illness impact on children and families, pediatric psychology, sexual self-esteem, and professional development.

Charles H. Zeanah, MD
Dr. Zeanah is Mary Peters Sellars-Polchow Chair in Psychiatry, Professor of Psychiatry and Pediatrics and Vice-Chair for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans. He also directs the Institute of Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health at Tulane. Throughout his career, he has studied the effects of adverse early experiences on development including trauma, abuse, and neglect. He also has studied interventions designed to enhance recovery following exposure to adverse experience.

Ali Luis Yates
Ms. Yates has a background in early childhood education and public child welfare social work. Through her work with young children, adolescents in foster care and families affected by substance abuse, she has become an advocate for racial and economic equality through the promotion of trauma-informed care. In addition to direct social work practice, Ali has consulted on the development of a trauma-informed youth and family prevention curriculum for the City of Seattle and worked as a knowledge management analyst for Casey Family Programs. In her current role as the Louisiana Adverse Childhood Experiences Educator Program Coordinator, she is involved in both local and state-level efforts to raise awareness about the impacts of childhood trauma. Ms. Yates is a member of the Louisiana ACE Initiative, the Young Child Wellness Collaborative, the Florida Parishes REACH Coalition, and the Injury Free Louisiana workgroup. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Visual Arts and Master of Social Work degree both from the University of Washington in Seattle.

Roberta Carona Vicari, MD, FAAP
Dr. Vicari is a Baton Rouge native who is committed to the advancement of children’s safety and wellness through community awareness. After graduating from LSU in Baton Rouge in Biochemistry, she attended LSU School of Medicine in NOLA. Then upon completing her Pediatric Residency with LSU at Earl K. Long Memorial Hospital in Baton Rouge, she went on to serve as a general pediatrician in Baton Rouge for 20 years. During that time, “Dr. V” worked with multiple organizations promoting health and safety in early childhood centers, in school settings, and for student athletes. In 2002, “Dr. V” joined Our Lady of the Lake RMC as the first Medical Director for Children’s Services. Under her leadership, OLOL developed its pediatric services into the OLOL Children’s Hospital within the larger OLOL Regional Medical Center (2004). Then as the Interim Program Director for the OLOL Pediatric Residency Program, she launched the first new pediatric residency in Louisiana in more than 25 years (2010) where she currently serves as Associate Program Director. She also remains committed to early childhood care and education, to the medical care of victims of child abuse, to policy development for children, and to the education of the effects of adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) on the developing brain and on the development of chronic diseases/disabilities over one’s lifetime. While an active member of Louisiana’s inaugural ACE educator program, she is currently serving as Our Lady of the Lake RMC’s Pediatric Division Chief and holds positions in multiple organizations on the local, state, and national level. Honored as a “Master Pediatrician” by the Louisiana Academy of Pediatrics (2014), she now serves as the Chapter Vice President.
